DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. It is noted that this application appears to claim subject matter disclosed in prior provisional applications as noted on the declaration. A reference to the prior applications must be inserted as the first sentence(s) of the specification of this application or in an application data sheet (37 CFR 1.76), if applicant intends to rely on the filing date of the prior application under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121, or 365(c). See 37 CFR 1.78(a). For benefit claims under 35 U.S.C. 120, 121, or 365(c), the reference must include the relationship (i.e., continuation, divisional, or continuation-in-part) of all nonprovisional applications. If the application is a utility or plant application filed under 35 U.S.C. 111(a) on or after November 29, 2000, the specific reference to the prior application must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the actual filing date of the application or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. If the application is a utility or plant application which entered the national stage from an international application filed on or after November 29, 2000, after compliance with 35 U.S.C. 371, the specific reference must be submitted during the pendency of the application and within the later of four months from the date on which the national stage commenced under 35 U.S.C. 371(b) or (f) or sixteen months from the filing date of the prior application. See 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2)(ii) and (a)(5)(ii). This time period is not extendable and a failure to submit the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 119(e) and/or 120, where applicable, within this time period is considered a waiver of any benefit of such prior application(s) under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). A benefit claim filed after the required time period may be accepted if it is accompanied by a grantable petition to accept an unintentionally delayed benefit claim under 35 U.S.C. 119(e), 120, 121 and 365(c). The petition must be accompanied by (1) the reference required by 35 U.S.C. 120 or 119(e) and 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) to the prior application (unless previously submitted), (2) a surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t), and (3) a statement that the entire delay between the date the claim was due under 37 CFR 1.78(a)(2) or (a)(5) and the date the claim was filed was unintentional. The Director may require additional information where there is a question whether the delay was unintentional. The petition should be addressed to: Mail Stop Petition, Commissioner for Patents, P.O. Box 1450, Alexandria, Virginia 22313-1450.

If the reference to the prior application was previously submitted within the time period set forth in 37 CFR 1.78(a), but not in the first sentence(s) of the specification or an application data sheet (ADS) as required by 37 CFR 1.78(a) (e.g., if the reference was submitted in an oath or declaration or the application transmittal letter), and the information concerning the benefit claim was recognized by the Office as shown by its inclusion on the first filing receipt, the petition under 37 CFR 1.78(a) and the surcharge under 37 CFR 1.17(t) are not required. Applicant is still required to submit the reference in compliance with 37 CFR 1.78(a) by filing an amendment to the first sentence(s) of the specification or an ADS. See MPEP § 201.11.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

2. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

3. Claims 14, 17 and 18 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

(a) Claim 14 requires a specific numerical comparison between the melting point of the claimed polypropylene and a hypothetical “conventional Ziegler Natta catalyzed polypropylene”. However, the breadth of such “conventional” materials is enormous, with a corresponding breadth of physical properties, and therefore the intended scope of the claim cannot be determined because insufficient basis exists for determining which conventional material is to serve as the comparison resin.

(b) In claim 17 (and claim 18 by dependency), the intended scope of “ductile to brittle transition” cannot be determined because no method for its determination has been disclosed.

Claim Objections

4. Claim 20 is objected to because the number “180,000” has not been correctly written (i.e., not enough zeros).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

Art Unit: 1713

5. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

6. Claims 1-5 and 8-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Glacobbe et al. (EP 757 069).

The reference discloses in Example 2 polypropylene having the claimed Mw/Mn, MFR and xylene solubles. Although the reference has not measured the flexural modulus for this example, this property appears to be inherent because the reference states that the homopolypropylenes have flexural modulus of 300,000 psi.

The reference has not measured the crystallinity, pentad ratios or haze of the disclosed PP; however, these properties appear to be inherent in view of the high xylene insolubles and the use of external donors for the express purpose of increasing isotacticity (paragraphs [0028] and [0029]).

The burden of proof is shifted to applicants to show that the reference PP does not include the claimed unreported properties.

7. Claims 8-20 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Moriya et al. (EP 903 356).

The reference discloses in Comparative Example 3 polypropylene having the claimed Mw/Mn, MFR and FM. Although the reference has not measured the xylene solubles, this property appears to be inherent because the reference has measured hot decane insolubles at 98.5%.

The reference has not measured the crystallinity, pentad ratios or haze of the disclosed PP; however, these properties appear to be inherent in view of the high decane insolubles and the use of external donors which would serve to increase isotacticity (paragraph [0347]).

The burden of proof is shifted to applicants to show that the reference PP does not include the claimed unreported properties.

Double Patenting

9. Claims 1-20 are provisionally rejected under 35 U.S.C. 101 as claiming the same invention as that of claims 1-20 of copending Application No. 10/680,372. This is a provisional double patenting rejection since the conflicting claims have not in fact been patented.

10. Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Roberto Rábago whose telephone number is (571) 272-1109. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday - Friday from 8:00 - 4:00.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, David Wu can be reached on (571) 272-1114. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
